

CTC COVENTRY – PROGRAMME 2022 / 23

TUESDAY EVENINGS 7.30PM

FRIENDS MEETING HOUSE HILL STREET COVENTRY CV1 4AN

	October 4th MALLORCA + WOMEN ROUND THE WREKIN Mike Thomas and Vicky Palethorpe warm up the programme by bringing the heat of the Med and our English Summer to the club room with slides and stories from the Mallorca Tour in April and the Women Round the Wrekin, the Women's Tour in July.
	October 18th RIDE LEADERS WORKSHOP Our Volunteer Leaders will be putting their heads together to review the year's programme of rides and tours and look at how they support each other to put on the best for next season. If you are interested to join us, come along and find out more about the resources we have as a team.
	November 1st OFF ROAD FROM EDINBURGH TO CAPE WRATH Bob Tinley did another of his solo tours this year, in the North of Scotland. (Might need to bring an extra woolly tonight. Be prepared for all weathers!)
	November 15th GINA CYCLED TO HELP STOP DOMESTIC ABUSE Gina Harris, 82, cycled from Lands End to John O'Groats to raise funds for Women's Refuges. She was interviewed by the BBC and is sharing her story with us too. Collections this evening will be made for our local Women's Refuge in Coventry.
	December 6th CYCLES, HORSES & CORGIS + ISLE OF WIGHT Two very different presentations tonight, starting with 'Cycles, Horses and Corgis' the Queen's Jubilee Pageant with Dave Hearn, followed by 'The Isle of Wight Tour' with Paul Whateley
	Sunday December 11th CLUB CHRISTMAS DINNER Once again the club will all come together for our usual festive fun at 'Time for Tea', Castle Hill Kenilworth at 4pm
	December 20th CYCLE TOURING WITH CHILDREN/TAG-ALONGS, TENTS & TANGRASTICS Ian O'Donnell is passionate about family cycling. He will be sharing his family's adventures in Scotland, the Cantii Way and Staffordshire. His video are great and you can view them on our Facebook page 'CTC Coventry'

	January 3rd VETERAN CYCLE CLUB Brian Robbins is part of the Veteran Cycle Club. They are enthusiastic about riding and conserving older cycles. The club has 2,500 members across the world. Brian is a great story teller - come and be entertained.
	January 17th RIDING THE KERNOW WAY One of our Ride Leaders, Nick Holloway, followed the Kernow Way in Cornwall this year. You may have seen it featured in Cycling UK Magazine.
	February 7th RIDE LEADERS WORKSHOP Our Leaders will be sorting the final details of rides and tours for the new season. If you are interested to join us, and maybe even lead a ride or two, come along and find out more about how you can support us to provide another fantastic summer season of cycling.
	February 21st BIKE WORKSHOP Time to get your hands dirty with chains, inner tubes and anything which can stop you enjoying your cycling. Bob will be running this practical session to help us get a proper handle on our bikes. Gloves provided!
	March 7th "SO WHERE ARE WE GOING NEXT ?" Bob Tinley and the team will be on hand once again to look at how we can plan routes from the map to the Garmin or phone, with a variety of apps to suit our needs.
	March 21st A LITTLE RAILWAY IN NEW ZEALAND John Alsop is being rather mysterious about this show. All we can get out of him is that there is a train ride and it is in the Antipodes!!
CLUB AGM	April ?? CTC COVENTRY AGM 2023 Date in early April to be confirmed
